Furniture That Fits[®]

Harmony In Design

The Parison™ Series offers a fresh, refined look for business, dining and higher education environments. Its elegant silhouette provides natural balance while working in harmony with your space.

The organically sculpted separate back and seat are made of injection-molded soft-plastic polypropylene. The back features curved lumbar support and gentle flex; with its deeply contoured separate seat, the softened edges and waterfall front make this a uniquely comfortable chair.

Choose from five models in a variety of colors to coordinate with designs throughout a multi-use space. Each version is available with or without a coordinating patterned upholstered seat.

Parison was designed for Virco by the award-winning team of Peter Glass and Bob Mills and is manufactured in Torrance, California and Conway, Arkansas.

Corporate Cultured

Set the stage and make a great impression from the very start. With a choice of contemporary colors and coordinating upholstery, Parison seating supports a design concept with subtlety and flair. Welcome your guests with Parison in reception, then follow-up with coordinates in conference rooms, executive offices, break rooms and work areas too.
